

CSEW Speakers' Series
2001
January 24	Tamara Levine, Canadian Labour Congress (CLC),	What Labour Can Contribute to the Literacy Movement
March 22	Sandra Acker & Michelle Webber, SESE, OISE/UT	Pleasure and Danger in the Work Lives of Academics
March 29	Elaine Bernard, Harvard Trade Union Program	Turning the Tide? Labour Movement Renewal and Civil Society in the U.S.
April 26	David Livingstone, OISE/UT	Working and Learning in the Information Age: Informal Learning and Latent power
August 08	Rita Kwok Hoi Yee, Hong Kong Baptist University	Changing Consciousness of Workers' Rights in China
October 10	Jack Quarter, AECD/CP (OISE/UT), Isla Carmichael, OPSEU, & Ken Delaney, First Ontario Fund	Pensions and Worker Capital Strategies: The Learning Dimension
October 25	Grace-Edward Galabuzi, Centre for Social Justice, Political Science, York University	Canada's Creeping Economic Apartheid: The Economic Segregation and Social Marginalization of Racialized Groups
November 13	Pierre Doray, Sociology, UQAM & CIRST (Centre interuniversitaire de recherche sur la science et la technologie)	Theoretical Framing of a Research Field – The Case of Education-Work Relations
November 27	Winnie Ng, Canadian Labour Congress, Kathryn Church, Community Mental Health and Economic Development & Deborah Barndt, Environment Studies, York University	Power and Difference in the Workplace
2002
February 26	Judith Marshall, Jorge Garcia-Orgales, John Ankenman	Mobilizing Workers in a Global Economy: A priority for union education
March 28	Janice Aurini, Scott Davies and Linda Quirke	The Rise of New Forms of Private Education
April 4	Jean Connon Unda	Workplace Literacy: Labour of Love
May 31	Johanne Deschamps, Nancy Jackson, Adriane Paavo, D'Arcy Martin, Bev Burke	Gender Politics in Union Education

August 25-28	Winnie Ng and D'Arcy Martin	Labour Educators Exchange at OISE/UT
2003
March 17	Yves Vaillancourt	The Social Economy in Québec & Voluntary Sector in Canada: Two Separate Worlds?
May 20	Marcos Arruda, Daniel Schugurensky, Debbie Field	Perspectives and Strategies from Brazil
September 30	Anil Verma & Sara Mann	The Role of Social Capital in the Learning Process
October 31	Knud Illeris	Learning as Competence Development
December 3	David Livingstone, Terezia Zoric, Peter Sawchuk, Tam Gallagher	Learning Labour and Hidden Knowledge book launch
December 4	Ann Frost	Does Work Organization Matter? A Study of Workers in American Hospitals
2004
January 21	Newton Duarte	Schooling and the Dialectical Reproduction of Knowledge from the Perspective of Activity Theory
January 30	Ellen Rose	Resisting Computer Culture
February 5	Helena Worthen	Activity Theory: A Model for Education on Labour Issues
February 6	Joe Berry and Vicky Smallman	Contingent Faculty in Higher and Adult Education
March 31	Newton Duarte and David Olson	Towards a Theory of Schooling: Contributions and Perspectives
April 21	Margrit Eichler and Ann Mathews	What is work?